MEMOIR/BOOK BLURB:

A SENSUOUS, SALACIOUS, SEDUCTIVE ADVENTURE IN LOVE!

“The Jewish Lady, The Black Man and the Road Trip” is an entertaining, humorous and inspiring celebration of racial diversity in a sexually supercharged relationship between two sixty-plus lovers. Their journey lands them far past the turns of the road.

Author Carol Sue Gershman navigates you through an honest and juicy adventure of self-exploration and obsession while you witness the evolution of a strong, determined woman whose love for romance, passion, culture, and companionship takes her and her lover Xavier, on the ride of their lives.

“This racy, romantic and poignant memoir will re-define the way the younger generation views the mature, young and adventurous at heart.” Lisa Silvera, thinking media

“The Jewish Lady, The Black Man and the Road Trip” celebrates race relations while serving as a poignant travelogue. The reader travels rides in tandem as this interracial couple embarks on a five-week action packed road trip from Miami to Montreal in her hot yellow Mustang convertible. They visit her dynamic family and discover a level of intimacy that neither has ever known.

Women of all ages will emerge enlightened and relieved to learn that sex later in life still smolders with passion, remains spicy and is here to stay!
